CONTENTS

No. 1. June, 1945

The Effect of Modulated High Frequency Condenser Field on the Straub-Fuehner Frog Heart Preparation. Con Fenning and Clarence R. Mott 1
Experimental Studies on Man with a Restricted Intake of the B Vitamins. Ancel Keys, Austin Henschel, Henry Longstreet Taylor, Olaf Mickelsen and Josef Brozek 5
Flow and pH Change of Submaxillary Saliva Associated with Variations in Acid-Base Equilibrium. Charles R. Brassfield 43
Carbohydrate and Acetone Body Metabolism of Liver Slices and the Effect of Insulin. Reginald A. Shipley and Edward J. Humel, Jr. 51
A Comparison of Intravenous and Oral Vitamin Tolerance Tests. R. E. Johnson, L. A. Contreras, F. C. Consolazio and P. F. Robinson 58
Hypertrophy of Adrenal Medulla of White Rats in Chronic Thiouracil Poisoning. David Marine and Emil J. Baumann 69
The Riboflavin and Vitamin B_6 Potency of Tissues from Rats Fed Succinyl Sulfathiazole With and Without Liver Supplements. B. S. Schweigert, L. J. Teply, I. Tatman Greenhut and C. A. Elvehjem 74
Mechanisms of Carotid Body Stimulation. W. Henry Hollinshead and Charles H. Sawyer 79
Oxygen Consumption of Excised Rat Tissues Following Acute Anoxic Anoxia. Frederick A. Fuhrman, Geraldine J. Fuhrman and John Field, 2nd 87
The Failure of Transfusions in Irreversible Hemorrhagic Shock. (A Study of Central Venous Pressures.) Carl J. Wiggers 91
Blood Potassium and Histamine Intoxication in Relation to Adrenocortical Function in Rats. Caroline Tum-Suden, Leland C. Wyman and Matthew A. Derow 102
Protection of Adrenalectomized Rats Against a High Temperature. Virginia Hermanson and Frank A. Hartman 108
The Effect of Electric Current on Gastric Secretion and Potential. Warren S. Rehm 115
Anticholinesterase Activity of Acid as a Biological Instrument of Nervous Integration. Robert Gesell and E. T. Hansen 126
Studies on the Cardio-Vascular System of Dogs with Radioactive Inert Gases. S. F. Cook and W. N. Sears 164
Spread of ACh Induced Electrical Discharges of the Cerebral Cortex. Francis M. Forster and Robert H. McCarter 168

No. 2. July, 1945

A Progressive Paralysis in Dogs Cured with Synthetic Biotin. Susan Gower Smith 175
The Stimulating Effect of Acetylcholine on the Mammalian Heart and the Liberation of an Epinephrine-like Substance by the Isolated Heart. Francisco Hoffmann, Elena J. Hoffmann, Samuel Middleton and Jaime Talesnik 189
The Effect of Hemorrhage and Replacement on the Apparent Volume of Plasma and Cells. Hampden Lawson and W. S. Rehm 199
The Reversibility of the Cardiovascular Damage Done by Nearly Complete Exsanguination. Hampden Lawson and W. S. Rehm 206
The Efficacy of Gelatin Solutions and Other Cell-free Fluids in Reversing the Effects of Nearly Complete Exsanguination. Hampden Lawson and W. S. Rehm 217
Effect of Exercise upon the Erythrocyte Sedimentation Rate. William A. Black and Peter V. Karpovich 224
The Effect of Bed Rest on the Blood Volume of Normal Young Men. Henry Longstreet Taylor, Lester Erickson, Austin Henschel and Ancel Keys 227

The Ability of the Liver to Change Blood Glucose and Lactate Concentrations Following Severe Hemorrhage. Clarissa Hager Beatty 233
The Nature of the Renal Tubular Mechanism for Acidifying the Urine. Robert F. Pitts and Robert S. Alexander 239
The Survival Times of Eviscerated Rats as Influenced by the Continuous Intravenous Administration of a Solution of Sodium Chloride. Dwight J. Ingle, Ruth Sheppard and Helen A. Winter 255
The Influence of Excitation of Muscle Pain Receptors on Reflexes of the Decerebrate Cat. E. Gellhorn and M. B. Thompson 259
Metabolic Factors in Oxygen Poisoning. Isidore Gersh and Carroll E. Wagner 270
The Effect of Electrical Stimulation on Neuromuscular Regeneration. Harry M. Hines, Eleanor Melville and William H. Wehrmacher 278
Life Cycle of White Blood Cells. The Rate of Disappearance of Leukocytes from the Peripheral Blood of Leukopenic Cats. John S. Lawrence, Donald M. Ervin and Raymond M. Wetrich 284
Output of Lymphocytes in Cats Including Studies on Thoracic Duct Lymph and Peripheral Blood. William S. Adams, Richard H. Saunders and John S. Lawrence ... 297
Vascular Responses of the Nasal Mucosa to Thermal Stimuli with Some Observations on Skin Temperature. H. J. Ralston and Wm. J. Kerr 305
Regulation of the Release of Pituitrin by Changes in the Osmotic Pressure of the Plasma. George H. Chambers, Eleanor V. Melville, Ruth S. Hare and Kendrick Hare 311
The Excretion of Conjugated Epinephrine Related Compounds. Karl H. Beyer and Sydney H. Shapiro 321

No. 3. August, 1945

Development of Hypertension in Emotional Gray Norway Rats after Air Blasting. Edmond J. Farris, Eleanor H. Yeakel and Harold S. Medoff 331
Oxidation of Pyruvate and Glucose in Brain Suspensions from Animals Subjected to Irreversible Hemorrhagic Shock, Carbon Monoxide Poisoning, or Temporary Arrest of the Circulation—A Study of the Effects of Anoxia. Otto Rosenthal, Henry Shenkin and David L. Drabkin. With the assistance of William M. Parkins and Mary H. Gibbon 334
Crystalline Vitamin B_c in Relation to the Cellular Elements of Chick Blood. C. J. Campbell, Margaret M. McCabe, Raymond A. Brown and A. D. Emmett 348
The Osmotic Activity of Gastrointestinal Fluids after Water Ingestion in the Rat. Roberta Follánsbee 355
Effect of Estrone and Diethylstilbestrol on Growth Rate of Rats and on Iodine Content of Thyroids. Virgil L. Koenig, F. X. Gassner and R. G. Gustavson 363
Nitrogen Balance and Plasma Protein Regeneration in Hypoproteinemic Dogs. Robert D. Seeley 369
Visual Thresholds as an Index of the Modification of the Effects of Anoxia by Glucose. R. A. McFarland, M. H. Halperin and J. I. Niven 378
Further Afferent Connections to the Acoustic Cortex of the Dog. Archie R. Tunturi 389
The Changes in Renal Clearance Following Complete Ischemia of the Kidney. Ewald E. Selkurt 395
The Electrocardiogram in Chronic Thiamine Deficiency in Rats. James M. Hundley, L. L. Ashburn and W. H. Sebrell 404
Effect of Destroying Three Localized Cerebral Cortical Areas for Sound on Correct Conditioned Differential Responses of the Dog's Foreleg. William F. Allen 415
Local Fluid Loss in Trauma. John L. Nickerson. With the technical assistance of P. M. Porter and A. G. Buckman 429
Phosphate Turnover in Muscle During Shock. Jesse L. Bollman and Eunice V. Flock .. 437

Hemolytic Anemia Produced by the Feeding of Fat and Choline. John E. Davis and J. B. Gross 444
The Effect of Certain Substances on Clotting Time, in Vitro. Clifford F. Gerber and E. W. Blanchard 447
Osmotic and Electrolyte Concentration Relationships During the Absorption of Autogenous Serum from Ileal Segments. Maurice B. Visscher, Raymond R. Roepke and Nathan Lifson 457
The Production of Polycythemia by Cobalt in Rats Made Anemic by a Diet Low in Protein. James M. Orten and Aline Underhill Orten 464
Osmotic and Electrolyte Concentration Relationships during Absorption of Salt Solutions from Ileal Segments. Maurice B. Visscher and Raymond R. Roepke 468

No. 4. September, 1945

Re-innervation of Denervated Muscle Fibers by Adjacent Functioning Motor Units. A. Van Harreveld 477
Factors Concerned with the Induction of Tourniquet Shock. E. Mylon and M. C. Winternitz 494
Alkalinizing Agents and Fluid Priming in Hemorrhagic Shock. Raymond C. Ingraham and Harold C. Wiggers 505
An Experimental Analysis, by Means of Acetylcholine Hypotension, of the Problem of Vagal Cardio-accelerator Fibers. H. F. Haney, A. J. Lindgren and W. B. Youmans 513
The Determination of the Propagation Velocity of the Arterial Pulse Wave. W. F. Hamilton, John W. Remington and Philip Dow 521
Some Difficulties Involved in the Prediction of the Stroke Volume from the Pulse Wave Velocity. John W. Remington, W. F. Hamilton and Philip Dow 536
The Construction of a Theoretical Cardiac Ejection Curve from the Contour of the Aortic Pressure Pulse. John W. Remington and W. F. Hamilton 546
The Relationship between the Cardiac Ejection Curve and the Ballistocardiographic Forces. W. F. Hamilton, Philip Dow and John W. Remington 557
Acquired Resistance to Water Intoxication. Mildred Liling and Robert Gaunt 571
Blood Pressure Response to Acutely Increased Pressure upon the Spinal Cord. R. A. Groat and T. L. Peele 578
Average Food Consumption in the Training Camps of the United States Army (1941–1943). Paul E. Howe and George H. Berryman 588
Bleeding Volume in Experimental Shock Produced by Prolonged Epinephrine Administration, Intraperitoneal Injection of Glucose, and Intestinal Strangulation. Hampden Lawson, Richard C. Porter and W. S. Rehm 595
Response of the Gastrointestinal Tract to Ingested Glucose Solutions. Paul F. Fenton 609
Lipotropic Action of Lipocaic. A Study of the Effects of Lipocaic, Methionine and Cystine on Dietary Fatty Livers in the White Rat. Dwight E. Clark, Mary Lou Eilert and Lester R. Dragstedt 620
Observations in Total Biliary Fistula Dogs without Bile Therapy. Charles C. Scott 626
X-Ray Diffraction Studies on Fish Bones. George C. Henny and Mona Spiegel-Adolf 632

No. 5. October, 1945

The Effect of Decompression of Human Metabolism during and after Exercise. S. F. Cook and Enrique Strajman 637
The Effect of Varied Thiamine Intake on the Growth of Rats in Tropical Environment. Ann O. Edison, Robert H. Silber and David M. Tennent 643
Interrelations of Adrenal and Sex Glands in Parabiotic Rats. Roberto Martín Pinto 652

Effect of Isolated Posterior Pituitary Principles on Survival of the Primitive Respiratory Center in the Decapitated Rat Head. William A. Hiestand and Donald C. Brodie 658
Metabolic Changes in Shock after Burns. Henry N. Harkins and C. N. H. Long 661
The Effects of Hepatic Anoxia on the Respiration of Liver Slices in Vitro. Alfred E. Wilhelmi, Jane A. Russell, Frank L. Engel and C. N. H. Long 669
Some Aspects of the Nitrogen Metabolism of Liver Tissue from Rats in Hemorrhagic Shock. Alfred E. Wilhelmi, Jane A. Russell, Mildred G. Engel and C. N. H. Long .. 674
The Effects of Anoxia and of Hemorrhage upon the Metabolism of the Cerebral Cortex of the Rat. Alfred E. Wilhelmi, Jane A. Russell, C. N. H. Long and Mildred G. Engel 683
The Action Potentials of the Stomach. Emil Bozler 693
The Effect of Thiocyanate on Gastric Potential and Secretion. Warren S. Rehm and Allen J. Enelow 701
Streamline Flow in the Arteries of the Dog and Cat. Implications for the Work of the Heart and the Kinetic Energy of Blood Flow. H. J. Ralston and A. N. Taylor 706
Histamine-Like Substance Present in Nasal Secretions of Common Cold and Allergic Rhinitis. Elizabeth Troescher-Elam, Giacomo R. Ancona and William J. Kerr ... 711
Influence of the Calcium Intake Level upon the Complete Life Cycle of the Albino Rat. H. L. Campbell and H. C. Sherman 717
Afferent Nerves Excited by Intestinal Distention. R. C. Herrin and W. J. Meek 720
Some Observations on General Skin Temperature Responses to Local Heating of Human Subjects in a Cold Environment. Carlos Martinez and Maurice B. Visscher 724
Centripetal Regeneration of the 8th Cranial Nerve Root with Systematic Restoration of Vestibular Reflexes. R. W. Sperry 735
Effects of Thyroid Feeding, Thyroidectomy and Adrenalectomy on Thiourea Intoxication in Rats. David Marine and Emil J. Baumann 742
Index 747
